

REPORTING CATEGORIES

Category 1.

Persons in this category shall disclose all interests in real property within the jurisdiction. Real property shall be deemed to be within the jurisdiction if the property or any part of it is located within or not more than two miles outside the boundaries of the jurisdiction or within two miles of any land owned or used by the Agency.

Persons are not required to disclose property used primarily as their residence or for personal recreational purposes.

Category 2.

Persons in this category shall disclose all investments and business positions. The Political Reform Act defines investment as follows:

"Investment" means any financial interest in or security issued by a business entity, including but not limited to common stock, preferred stock, rights, warrants, options, debt instruments and any partnership or other ownership interest, if the business entity or any parent, subsidiary or otherwise related business within the jurisdiction at any time during the two years prior to the time any statement or other action is required under this title. No asset shall be deemed an Investment unless its fair market value equals or exceeds two thousand dollars ($2,000). The term 'Investment' does not include a time or demand deposit in a financial institution, shares in a credit union, any insurance policy, interest in a diversified mutual fund registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or a common trust fund which is created pursuant to Section 1564 of the Financial Code, or any bond or other debt instrument issued by any government or government Agency. Investments of an individual include pro rata share of investments of any business entity mutual fund or trust in which the individual or spouse owns directly, indirectly or beneficially, a 10 percent interest or greater.

According to the Political Reform Act, a business position is a position of director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or any position of management in any organization or enterprise operated for profit, including but not limited to a proprietorship, partnership, firm, business trust, joint venture, syndicate, corporation or association.

Category 3.

Persons in this category shall disclose all income and business positions.

The Political Reform Act defines income as follows:

"Income" means a payment received, including but not limited to any salary, wage, advance, dividend, interest, rent, proceeds from any sale, gift, including any gift of food or beverage, loan forgiveness or payment of indebtedness received by flier, reimbursement for expenses, per diem, or contribution to an insurance or pension program paid by any person other than an employer, and including any community property interest in the income of a spouse. Income also includes an outstanding loan. Income of an individual also includes a pro rata share of any business entity or trust in which the individual or spouse owns, directly, indirectly or beneficially, a 10 percent interest or greater.

Category 4.

Persons in this category shall disclose all business Positions, investments in, or income (including gifts and loans) received from business entities that manufacture, provide or sell service and/or supplies of a type utilized by the Agency and associated with the job assignment of designated positions assigned this disclosure category.

Category 5.

Persons in this category shall disclose all business positions, investments in, or income (including gifts and loans) received from business entities that provide, manufacture or sell service, supplies, provisions or other property of a type utilized by the Agency in an aggregate amount of $10,000 or more per annum.

Category 6.

Individuals who perform under contract the duties of any designated position shall be required to file Statements of Economic Interest disclosing reportable interest in the categories assigned to that designated position.

In addition, individuals who, under contract, participate in decisions which affect financial interests by providing information, advice, recommendation or counsel to the Agency which could affect financial interest shall be required to file Statements of Economic Interests, unless they fall within the Political Reform Act's exceptions to the definition of consultant. The level of disclosure shall be as determined by the-City Manager of the Agency.
