7-ELEVEN ROBBERY SUSPECTS

August 4, 2014

DETAILS: On Tuesday, July 29, 2014 at 2:39 A.M., Suspect-1 entered the 7-ELEVEN, 20511 Western Ave, where the lone employee was working, displayed a handgun and demanded money from the cash registers. Suspect-1 ordered the victim who had been stocking shelves to run to the register and demanded the money from both registers as well as the reserve shelf behind the counter. Suspect-1 then ordered the victim to open the safe behind the counter, but fled when told only the owner had access to the safe. Suspect-1 was last seen running eastbound across Western Ave toward 206th St and out of sight.

Ten minutes before the robbery, another Hispanic male (believed to be an accomplice) was inside the store acting suspiciously. When asked what he was doing, Suspect-2 had said he was waiting for a friend and waiting for coffee. He repeatedly looked at the front windows and when he got his coffee, he exited the store and stood outside the east side of the front entrance before being told to leave or the police would be called. Suspect-2 left in a northeast direction on Western on a skateboard and less than four minutes later, Suspect-1 entered the store.

SUSPECT DESCRIPTION: Suspect-1: Hispanic male adult, in his mid-20's, 6'00" tall 150 lbs, thin build, wearing brown pantyhose over his head and face, pink sweatshirt, black pants, gray shoes, white and black gloves, white cloth bag and a Silver handgun. Suspect-2: Hispanic male adult, 5'05" tall, 150 lbs, brown, short/shaved hair, mustache, wearing a black sweatshirt, black pants, black tennis shoes and a skateboard.

SUSPECT VEHICLE: None seen or heard
