Sexual Assault Arrest

On Monday, December 3, 2018, Torrance Police Detectives responded to South Torrance High School to investigate a 2012 sexual assault incident involving a teacher and a former student (who was a minor at the time).

After Detectives conducted their preliminary investigation, the suspect was arrested at approximately 1:30 PM. Detectives are currently reviewing evidence to potentially identify additional victims.

This investigation began with a tip from the public. The Torrance Police Department is grateful for the partnership we share with our community members to report all criminal activity and to ensure others are not victimized.
