“Police Officers Deliver Baby”

On Thursday, May 2, 2019, at approximately 7:43 a.m., officers responded to the parking lot of Target located 3433 Sepulveda to assist the Torrance Fire Department responding to a woman going into labor in her vehicle.

The two first responding officers contacted the woman in her vehicle and learned she was in labor. One officer assisted the woman in reclining her seat and gathering a towel as the other officer helped guide the baby out. Approximately one minute later, the officers helped deliver a baby boy.

The Torrance Fire Department treated the woman and baby on scene and subsequently transported them to a local hospital, where they are doing well.
