Significance TMC Section 91.50.050 (a) (check all that apply)

- Property is associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of local, regional, state or national history, or the cultural heritage of the City, California or the United States.
- Property is associated with an important person or persons who made a significant contribution to the history, development, and/or culture of the City, region, state, or nation.
- Property embodies the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, style, or method of construction.
- Property is representative of the work of a master.
- Property possesses high artistic or aesthetic values.
- Property has yielded or has the potential to yield information important to the prehistory or history of the City, region, state, or nation.
- Property is among the last, best remaining examples of an architectural or historical type or specimen.

Describe how the property meets each of the selected significance criteria (attach additional sheets if necessary):

Integrity TMC Section 91.50.050 (b) Integrity is defined by seven aspects: location, design, setting, materials, workmanship, feeling and association. A property or area need not possess all seven aspects, but must retain enough to convey the reason for its significance. How has the property/structure maintained integrity for the time period in which it is significant? (attach additional sheets if necessary)
