SUSPECT ARRESTED IN SHOOTING INVESTIGATION

On Monday, June 3, 2019, at approximately 2:56 P.M., Torrance Police Officers responded to reports of shots fired at the Del Amo Fashion Center located at 3525 Carson Street in the City of Torrance. The investigation revealed one victim had been struck by gunfire and that the lone suspect had fled the scene. The victim was transported to a local hospital and later released.

Torrance Detectives conducted an in-depth investigation, followed up on investigative leads, and analyzed evidence which included the firearm that was recovered the following day. Torrance Detectives also shared information with neighboring law enforcement agencies in order to identify and apprehend the suspect and ensure the safety of the community.

On Saturday, June 29, 2019, at approximately 1:17 AM, the Redondo Beach Police Department contacted the suspect during a traffic stop. The suspect provided a false name and was arrested for suspected sales of narcotics. During the booking process, the suspect was positively identified and the charge of attempt murder was added.

This act of violence was determined to be an isolated incident, and there is no evidence indicating there are additional shooters. This incident remains under investigation.

The Torrance Police Department is grateful for another opportunity to collaborate with our neighboring agencies resulting in the apprehension of those involved in criminal activity. This investigation is being conducted under the command of Torrance Police Captain Mark Underwood of the Special Operations Bureau. Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to contact the Torrance Police Department (310) 618-5570 (DR 190024617).
