“Kidnapping/ Attempted Murder Arrests”

On May 28, 2020, at approximately 7:00 PM, Torrance Police Officers responded to the 2500 block of 166th Place regarding shots fired. Upon arrival, officers located a 27-year-old male adult suffering from gunshot wounds. The Torrance Fire Department treated the victim at the scene and later transported him to a local hospital.

During the investigation, officers learned the victim was kidnapped from the City of Carson over missing property and taken to a Torrance residence in the 2600 block of 166th Place. While at the residence, an altercation occurred, and the victim sustained gunshot wounds. The victim was able to escape from the suspects during the altercation and ran down the street where officers located him. Officers checked the involved residence, but the suspects were gone before officers arrived. Investigators learned the victim and the suspects were known to each other, and there was no ongoing threat to the public.

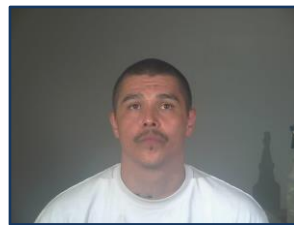

Detectives conducted an in-depth investigation, extensive follow-up, and were able to identify the involved suspects. Torrance Police Detectives and SWAT officers later located and arrested Omar Jaramillo, a 34-year-old of Carson, Huy Huynh, a 39-year-old of Torrance, Mark Alvarado, a 30-year-old of Long Beach, and Sabrina Lunalong, a 28-year-old of Carson. There is no evidence indicating there were additional suspects involved.
