TO: CULTURAL ARTS COMMISSION

FROM: MONICA HARTE, CULTURAL SERVICES MANAGER

SUBJECT: CULTURAL SERVICES DIVISION UPDATES

Recommendation of the Cultural Services Manager that the Cultural Arts Commission receive and file updates on the Cultural Services Division.

- The Excellence in Arts Awards celebrates its 46th year with a fun and moving production, free for all to attend. The winners are excited and developing their artistic offerings to present live. Kirk Rossberg will conduct a Cookie Decorating Contest with the Commissioners. Elected officials have also been invited to participate in the decorating.

- The Torrance Theatre Company's production of ESCANABA IN DA MOONLIGHT, written by Jeff Daniels and directed by Cary Jordahl, opened October 5, 2024. This is the first production of the 25th Anniversary Season at the cozy theatre in Old Torrance at 1316 Cabrillo Ave. The production is hilarious and runs through October 26, 2024. The scenery was designed by Cary Jordahl's technical theatre student, Lily Mizrahi, from his acclaimed Technical Theatre Program at Mira Costa High School and our own Theatre Technician, Jorge Macias designed the sound, which adds to the fun in ways you'll want to experience for yourself. Recent upgrades include roomier seats with a small shelf in front of each row for audience members to comfortably set their drinks, purses, programs, and other items. There is also a new popcorn machine, which has proven to be a very popular addition to the concessions stand. Gia Jordahl, Artistic Director, is planning the 25th Anniversary Gala for March 2025, which is proving to be an event you definitely won't want to miss.

- The Torrance Art Museum opens October 12, 2024, at 6:00p.m. with the traditional excitement and party atmosphere. IN MEDIAS RES: EXPANDED in Gallery 1 showcases Los Angeles-based feminist artists. Gallery 2 features Jet Pascua, the Filipino-Norwegian artist with his exhibition: JET PASCUA: THE ARREARS ON ARRIVA. The exhibitions are open through December 7, 2024.

- Cultural Services Classes is working with various artists to increase offerings in art, language, and music. We are currently evaluating possible additional class locations in various Torrance parks, such as McMaster Park and we are in conversation with numerous instructors and vendors to accomplish our expansion objectives. We have designed a new social media campaign to support our goals.

- The cultural marketing subcommittee formed to research common practices in other cities for providing comprehensive, city-wide cultural event listings will meet November 5, 2024 to compile data and develop a proposal for a comprehensive listing for Torrance cultural events. Members of the subcommittee have begun researching and securing quotes for possible printed materials to support the conversation.

- The Torrance Rose Float Association is holding their first Decorator's meeting on Thursday, October 17th at 7:00p.m. in the Garden Room at the Torrance Cultural Arts Center. They are inviting everyone who would like to take part in this exciting tradition. It's a fun meeting and an opportunity to get to know the dedicated people behind years of successful Torrance Rose Floats.

- The Torrance Sister City Association has begun planning for the annual Bunka-Sai Festival, scheduled April 5 and 6, 2024, 11:00a.m. to 5:00p.m.

TO: CULTURAL ARTS COMMISSION
FROM: MONICA HARTE, CULTURALSERVICES MANAGER
SUBJECT: DISCUSS AND DETERMINE COMMISSION DARK NIGHTS

Recommendation of the Cultural Services Manager that the Cultural Arts Commission discuss the 2024 November and December meetings to declare which month shall be dark.

Traditionally, the Cultural Arts Commission schedules their December meeting as a Dark Night and adjourn to January. Cultural Arts meetings typically try to avoid or reschedule meetings appropriately to avoid the November or December holidays. Seeking further direction, staff look to the Commission regarding potential adjustment to the Commission Dark Night selection.

If the Commission decides to opt for a dark night on November 18, 2024, the regularly scheduled Cultural Arts Commission meeting for October 21, 2024 will motion to adjourn to December 16, 2024.

Respectfully submitted,

Monica Harte

SUBJECT: REVIEW AND DISCUSS UTILITY BOX SUBMISSIONS FOR PRESENTATION TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Recommendation of the Cultural Services Manager that the Cultural Arts Commission review and discuss the artist submission for the Utility Box Program and choose twelve for presentation to the City Council.

At their meeting of March 21, 2022, the Cultural Arts Commission began a process to review and recommend the components of a utility box public art program. At their meeting of October 17, 2022, a Sub-Committee of the Commission presented 12 locations, 2 per District, to be the locations for installation under the pilot program.

Staff issued a call for artists to solicit artwork designs from the community by providing flyers to local arts organizations and schools, posting on social media, submitting the call on numerous arts websites and Facebook pages catering to artists, and sending direct emails to more than 200 artists who participated in the NOMAD Exhibition in 2024. The call to artists specified the artwork submissions would be presented to the Cultural Arts Commission for review and recommendation. Once the top 12 submissions have been selected, staff will offer to match sponsors with pre-approved artworks. Ultimately, all artworks and installations will be presented for approval to City Council.

Respectfully submitted,

Monica Harte
Cultural Services Manager

The design includes three transformed hub-caps into references of the natural world and craft while also re-presenting discarded objects. Torrance is home to the US headquarters of American Honda Motor Company, Acura and other top automotive companies. This work includes social commentary on our automotive dependency in Los Angeles while also celebrating industry and commerce in Torrance.
